Lifeline Canberra

Introduction

For over 43 years, Lifeline Canberra has provided support to Canberra and the surrounding regions. We are active partners in a national network that provides a high quality telephone service 24 hours a day, 7 days a week to those in crisis. The most critical part of this service is our focus on suicide prevention, as expressed by Lifeline Australia whose vision is “An Australia free of suicide”.

We are an integral part of the Canberra landscape and continue to promote community resilience. We are proud that our organisation’s success has been based on our large group of dedicated volunteers from the local region.

This plan lays the foundations of our organisation as it is today, including our products and services. It also outlines the vision of the organisation for the future and how we intend to achieve that vision.

Where we are today

Crisis Support Services

Every hour of every day, trained volunteer telephone crisis supporters are available to the community of the ACT and surrounding region. Lifeline is there 24 hours a day, seven days a week, when other services are closed. Many services and private practitioners refer clients to our service for support between appointments and after hours.

Our telephone crisis supporters provide skilled and knowledgeable support to our callers at the time when their situation has overwhelmed them or just seems too much to bear alone. They listen with care and acceptance, whatever the circumstances. People call Lifeline for many reasons. Common themes include relationships, suicide, loneliness, anxiety, addictions, health, bereavement and information.

In the last financial year, Lifeline Canberra answered over 30,000 crisis calls. This could not have been achieved without the dedication and compassion of our 300 volunteer telephone crisis supporters.

CORE Solutions Training

Lifeline Canberra offers a range of resilience and crisis intervention training courses. This is a further opportunity for us to provide support for the community and to raise funds to support our telephone crisis line. These courses are available publicly and we also contract to government agencies and private enterprise to conduct in-house courses.

Community Resilience

Lifeline Canberra holds a number of events each year to bring the Canberra community together and raise awareness of specific issues. These include the “Out of the Shadows” walk to mark World Suicide Prevention Day in September and the annual “Women of Spirit” awards. We see these activities as a support to the Canberra community and a way of bringing our brand to life.

The training of our dedicated volunteers also has value to the wider Canberra community as these skills are transferred outside of our phone centre.

Fundraising Events

An icon of our city, Lifeline Canberra has two major Bookfairs each year and a smaller winter fair. These fairs provide much needed funds to support our services. We have a warehouse in Mitchell that enables our 200 warehouse and Bookfair volunteers to collect, sort, and price the thousands of books that are generously donated each year. The volunteers work almost 365 days of the year to support our Bookfairs.
